This tropical escape is anchored by open-plan living, dining and entertainment areas set in one large three-level pavilion, fronted by a spacious terrace and an infinity pool that melts into the horizon.

You'll feel far from any city madness here, where features like a serene waterfall and earthy elements like stone and wood gently bring you closer to nature. A 'floating' shaded sala (gazebo) is perfect for sunset cocktails before a delicious poolside BBQ prepared by the resident chef and staff.

While inside, slide-away glass walls connect the outdoor living areas with indoor spaces so that you can enjoy the sea views, warm breezes and the calming sound of waves at all times.
